

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Another case to day

Germ-proof Sheetings at L. B. Kerr's.

The schools will not be opened at present.

The Time is out and is as usual full of fun.

The schools will not be opened until further notice.

The band will play at Emma Square this afternoon.

Ten shares of Reciprocity Sugar Co., stock are offered for sale.

The private schools have postponed opening for the present.

The government band played at the Palace yesterday afternoon.

The constant rain during the month of September is something unusual.

Mrs. Herman Focke entertained her friends at a waggonette party last night.

Mrs. Norton and her sister Miss Maud Auld are visiting Mr. James Auld on Waikiki road.

The Supreme Court will convene Monday, the P. C. A. local this morning to the contrary notwithstanding.

There will be a large crowd around at Palace Square this afternoon to look at the start of the "wheelers."

The merchants and trades people of the town may hold an indignation meeting next week. It might be well.

The Paradise of the Pacific will be out on time although Editor Hoogs is getting grey-haired from doing the "pay roll" business.

The Board of Health will hold an important meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The resignation of the three medicine men will probably not be discussed.

In season or out of season every family should have a bottle of DIARRHOEA MIXTURE in the house. There is none better than DWIGHT'S, which has been dispensed by the HOLLISTER PHARMACY for the last twenty years.

Only one fresh case of cholera to 1:30 p. m. to-day. A male attendant at the Insane Asylum is the unfortunate patient. Yesterday's case from Kikihale—the extension of Hotel street to the stream—died last night.

L. B. Kerr will receive a large invoice of goods in the Miowera. In the meantime the ladies will find an excellent opportunity to lay in a stock of White Cotton Ducks, New Gingham and Flannelettes at bed-rock prices.

Bruce Waring & Co have only a few lots left for sale at Punahou. Everybody intending to make a home in Hawaii seems to be anxious to secure a lot in that well-chosen block near the Punahou night blooming cereus.

There is a constant rush for Hats at L. B. Kerr's store on Queen street. Men, women and children are taking their pick of the elegant assortment on hand. Feathers for ladies hats in abundance and in all shades and varieties.

At St. Andrew's Cathedral. 16th Sunday after Trinity. Feast of St. Michael and All Angels. Services as follows: 6:30 a. m., Holy Communion; 11 a. m., Holy Communion. Chancel: 3:30 p. m., Pule Ahiahi; 5 p. m., Evensong and Sermon.

When a policeman is so deaf that he has almost to tread on the toes of the judge who sentences him to hear his sentence, it seems to us that he cannot be of any great advantage in hearing whether an offence is being committed in his vicinity.

John Sullivan, the popular livery stableman, who has been ailing for sometime will take a trip to the Coast and his many friends hope that he will return the same old "John" who for years has commanded the true aloha of the kama-ainas.

To close them out Shirt Waists, formerly selling at $1.50 each, have been reduced to $1; and Pith Hats, which were selling at $2, from this on will be sold at $1 each. Call early before the supply is exhausted. A. Barnes, New Republic Building, King street.

Albert S. Cunha, the son of our esteemed fellow citizen Emmanuel Cunha has composed a march which does credit to the young musician. The title of the piece is the Bloomer Girl March and the composition shows that our young countryman has a keen ear for popular music and has spent his time abroad to great advantage. The Hawaiian News Company has placed the march on the counter of its music department.

Death of Moss Davis.

Another kamaaina has gone to rest. Mr. M. Davis, died yesterday. The deceased has a all times been a respected citizen in Honolulu who was engaged in business here for many years. A short while ago Mr. Davis left the islands to seek a more congenial climate for his health. He failed in securing it and returned here, and even the salubrious breezes of Hawaii could not restore his usual robustness. Mrs. Davis and Richard Davis, his son, were present at the last moments of their devoted husband and father, and are now the recipients of the sympathy of the community. The funeral of Moss Davis took place this afternoon under the auspices of the Hawaiian Lodge No. 21, and Pacific Lodge U D

Sans Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramcars. The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.

The Kauai people who desire to go home went into quarantine this morning. Among them were Geo. Fairchild and wife, Rufus Spalding and wife, Deputy Sheriff C. H. Willis and wife, H. Z. Austin and wife, Mrs. W. F. Merithy, C. D. Pringle and wife, J. B. Alexander and wife, B. Brightwell, Miss McCorister, Mrs. H. Lindsay, Miss Hadley, Miss A. Weir, J. H. Godfrey and wife, J. H. Hatfield, Mrs. W. A. Mackay and Miss M. Morris.

If you need any Serge for Skirts, in heavy or light quality, serviceable in wet weather, you can find it at N. S. Sachs', 520 Fort street, Honolulu.
